The famous liturgist Dr. Mark Searles once remarked that when the priest vests for the celebration of the Holy Eucharist and other Sacraments he symbolically represents Christ in transfigured glory sharing His presence with His People.

Therefore the vestments reflect the glory of the Risen Christ.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton
LITURGICAL VESTMENTS

You are invited to make a donation in memory of your loved one.

Introibo ad altare Dei, ad Deum qui laetificat juventutem meam.

I will go unto the altar of God; to the God who is the joy of my youth. — Psalm 42 (43)

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton has ordered matching vestments and a funeral pall for each of the Liturgical Seasons.

You are invited to make a donation in your name or the name of a loved one. All Memorial Names will be inscribed on a plaque that will hang in the vesting sacristy. Before each Mass, you or your loved one will be remembered by the vesting priest.
